IMAGES of GOD

Sometimes we hear someone say; "that he is the image of their father." By this people usually mean that their attitude or their mannerisms is that of their parent.

God who we can't ever fully see in this world has revealed in the book of Genesis that human beings are his greatest work of creation and they are formed in his image. This is an awesome compliment and responsibility. Recently some children were given the opportunity to write what they thought God was like from what they saw in the people around them, this is what some of them wrote;

*God is like a friend, we can comfortably reveal ourselves to friend who will accept us with the good and the bad within us and still be there to support us.

*God is like an inner healer, who is able to see, diagnose and help us get spiritually better. And like the work of a doctor we need to cooperate with his instructions that we get in his word.

*God is like a rock who is forever strong and solid and will give us support when the storms of life can hold toss us around.

To truly appreciate the beautiful human images of God we need to take the time to listen and develop a relationship with his Son the now crucified risen Jesus of Nazareth because he was the one who said; "To have seen me is to have seen the Father." - Fr Martin R Maunsell
