EASTER REFLECTION

"When John looked into the empty tomb, he saw and he believed." (John Ch.20 v 8)

A number of years ago a teenage high school student had just finished delivering his usual Sunday morning paper run, this time it was on an Easter Sunday morning. When he had finished he passed his local Catholic Church, he had no intention to go to Mass as he was in the midst of a typical teenage rejection of the Church.

But what caught his attention was that the rising sun that morning hit the big silver cross in front of the Church and its brightness overwhelmed him to such an extent that it suddenly dawned on him as to what Easter was all about. There was an inner urge now for him to walk up the stairs and join in the Mass that was about to begin. This boy told his family later that morning; "It suddenly dawned on me that God's light is stronger than any darkness in this world and it created a warmth that I wanted to now experience."

This unforeseen incident led this young man to now keep on coming back each Sunday to keep alive the Easter experience that is in him.

The significance of Easter has been put so succinctly by the Congregationalist minister J. S. Whale (1877-1987); "That the Gospels don't really explain Easter rather the Easter event explains the Gospels!"
